

LADDER DEMONSTRATION by Phoenix Fire Department during 1912 Horseshow Days. At top of ladder is Frank Snyder, and down is George Snyder, Ira Veail, Jess Barlow and Clarence West. Fred Danner, chief, at left, looks on.

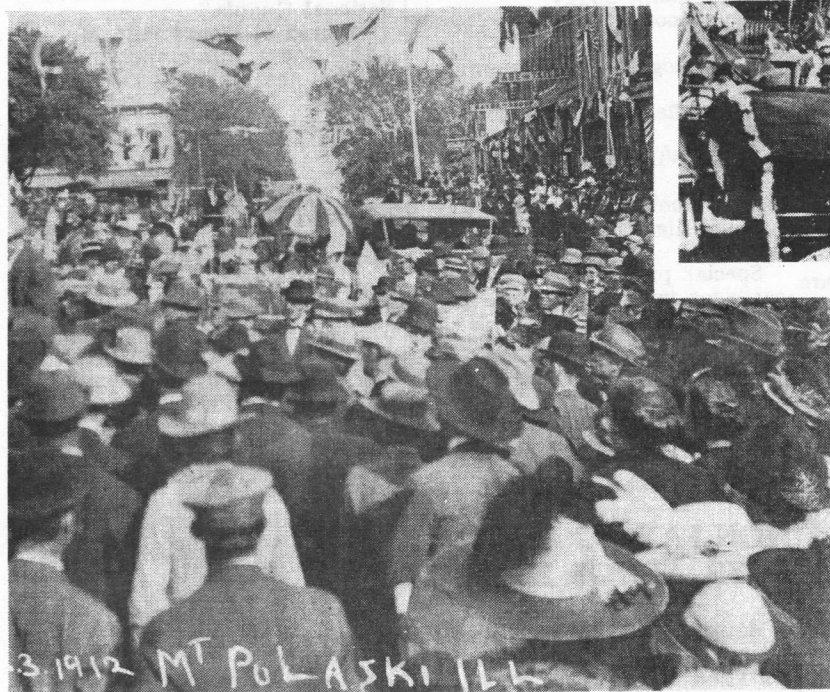

THESE MEN MADE THE FAMOUS HORSE SHOWS in Mount Pulaski the outstanding event in central Illinois back in 1912-1913. Left to right, are: George J. Stoll, president; Charles Schmitz, secretary; B. H. Keck, general manager; John H. Tendick, vice-president. T. A. Scroggin was treasurer. All these men have passed on except Mr. Tendick.

VIEWS OF 1912-1913 HORSE SHOW DAYS

In Mount Pulaski
Show Tremendous
Interest Shown
In These Events.

THIS FINE MATCHED TEAM was the pride of the late George J. Stoll, president of the 1912-13 Horse Shows in Mount Pulaski.