Commandery No. 39, Knights Templar.

He is survived by his wife, and one son, George, at home; one daughter, Harriet, wife of Arthur Gehlbach, Lincoln; one granddaughter; one brother, Allen Rule Peoria; and the following six sisters: Mrs. Jule Mercer, Mrs. Hazel Dukas, Litchfield; Mrs. Lottie Homan, Mrs. Hattie Nickoden, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Nora Weller, Gillespie; and Mrs. Rachel Iselman, Des Moines, Iowa.

The body was removed to the Schahl funeral home, where funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday, Dec. 7, conducted by Rev. J. Wayne Staley, assisted by Rev. Ray O. Zumstein. Two hymns, "In the Land of the Unsetting Sun" and "I've Done My Work," were sung by Omer Potter, with Mrs. G. F. Wait as piano accompanist. The services were in charge of Mount Pulaski Lodge No. 87, A. F. and A. M., and on account of the cold weather, the lodge's ritualistic service was held in the funeral home, with Ennis A. Downing giving the services. The Knights Templar formed an escort. Services were largely attended, many being present from out of the city. There were many beautiful floral tributes, tokens of love and respect.

Interment was in the Mount Pulaski cemetery. The pallbearers were Mayor William F. Binder, Dr. George S. Connelly, Abner Jackson, Willard Kautz, Ennis A. Downing and S. L. Brown.

Doubt ye that he knows the truth That has baffled age and youth?

You who weep for him today Who from earth has gone away Know you not that he has found Footing on a surer ground?

Would you weep for one who rose Victor over mighty foes? Would you mourn for him today High promotion called away?

He is done with care and pain, Failure cannot strike again; God has called him out of strife To a cleaner, ampler life.

To a richer world than ours, Clearer sight and wider powers, To a life that knows no scorn He has gone for whom you mourn
