FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN SPRINGFIELD

Mrs. Mary E. Martin, 930 N. Eleventh street, Springfield, died in her home Saturday morning, Dec. 6, aged 85 years.

Decedent was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Glose, who lived in Mount Pulaski over 40 years ago. Her first marriage was to a Mr. Davis. For several years Mrs. Davis and three daughters resided in Mount Pulaski, later going to Topeka, Kansas. Mrs. Davis returned to Illinois several years later and married a Mr. Martin of Buffalo Hart. In recent years she had made her home in Springfield. She was a sister of the late Henry and Grant Glose of Mount Pulaski, and Chauncey Glose, who had moved from this city to Gibson City, where he died many months ago.

Mrs. Martin is survived by 3 daughters, Mrs. Ralph McElvain, Topeka, Kan.; Mrs. Sid Reed and Mrs. Lois Unsbee, Springfield; one brother, David Glose, Topeka; nine grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Mrs. Martin was an aunt of Chauncey E. Glose of this city; also a sister-in-law of Mrs. Clara Glose and Mrs. Anna Glose, this city.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Third Presbyterian church, of which she was a member, in Springfield, conducted by Rev. H. M. Hildebrandt. Burial was in Oak Ridge cemetery, Springfield.

NINTH CALENDAR BANQUET IS HELD

The 9th annual Calendar Banquet was held at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 2, in the basement of the Christian church, and although the winter weather was severe, about 108 members and families were present to enjoy the occasion. There were twelve tables, all decorated differently, with a color scheme of blue and white. Mrs. Frank E. Turley rendered piano selections until everyone was seated at the tables. At 8 p. m. the following program was given:

THE WEATHER

The month of December is giving us some real winter weather. The first big snow on Saturday, Nov. 28, was followed by a nine-inch snow last Saturday. The coldest this week was down to zero Tuesday morning, when the atmosphere seemed to be full of fog, but in reality was frost that covered every tree and shrub, and presented a beautiful scene. The temperature at 6 a. m. Thursday was 30 above.
