

MOUNT PULASKI HILL proves thrilling spot for youngsters as they take off in the business district and coast four blocks on S. Washington to the depot. (T-N Photo.)

PVT. CHARLES E. SCHULTZ is stationed at Camp Siebert, Attalla, Alabama, and is enjoying camp life in his usual jovial way.

WE HAVE MOVED

Our Entire Hatchery Equipment and Business Offices to

MOUNT PULASKI, ILLINOIS

having found it necessary due to GAS and TIRE Rationing. We have chosen Mount Pulaski as our business site because of better shipping facilities.

We are still Hatching BABY CHICKS

each week, but please order your chicks 10 days in advance, to be sure of delivery

Our CHESTNUT Store
will be open for the purposes of buying eggs, selling feeds and remedies as well as baby chicks.

Ed Johansen will be in charge.

When in Mount Pulaski make our front room your headquarters. Visit with your friends and neighbors.
