

LIEUT. R. S. SANDIFER of Foster Field, Victoria, Texas, accompanied the body of Lewis G. Bender, who was killed in an airplane accident at the flying field last Friday. The body arrived here early Monday morning and remained at the Schahl funeral home until the hour of the service at St. John's Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon. Lieut. Sandifer was the squadron instructor the deceased was in. (Times-News Photo)

FIRST LOGAN COUNTY CASUALTY in World War II was Eugene Huebner of Atlanta, who was fatally injured at the bombing of Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, when attempting to rescue a fallen comrade. He died three weeks later as the result of his wounds.

MATTINGLY CHILDREN—Helen (deceased), Woodrow now in the Navy; Anna Louise, Lincoln; and Homer, also in the Navy, are children of Mrs. Josie Mattingly.

A Homelike Setting

There is nothing austere or depressing about our funeral home. It is like your own home, with a friendly, comfortable simplicity that makes everyone feel at ease, it is so little different from a private residence, and so much more convenient.

Schahl Funeral Home

Sedan Ambulance Service

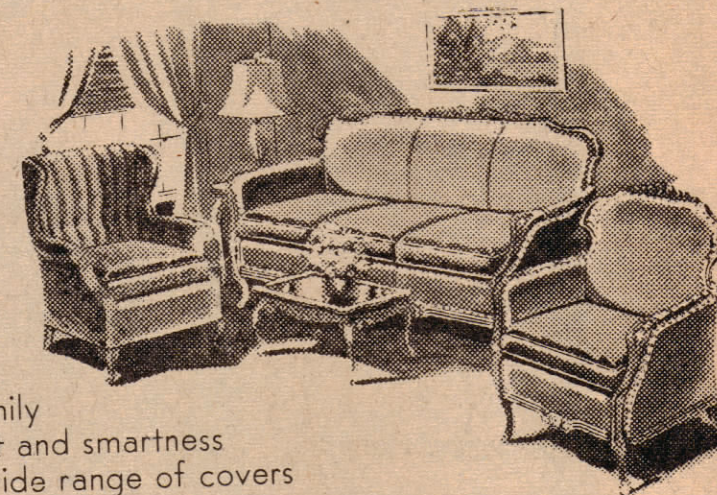

PHONE 235

MOUNT PULASKI

Gifts that Glorify the Home

A Gift for the Home is a Gift for All . . . Our Store Has an Endless Array of Suggestions

A KROEHLER Living Room Suite

Just the right
gift for the whole family to enjoy . . . Comfort and smartness in these Suites in a wide range of covers

Glorify Your Christmas Feast with A New DINING ROOM SUITE

OTHER SUGGESTIONS

LAMPS . . .

Table and Living Room
Models

CHAIRS . . .

Living Room Chairs that provide comfort and pride.

DESKS . . .

What person doesn't appreciate the value of a roomy desk.

HASSOCKS — MIRRORS — PICTURES — TABLES
SEWING CABINETS — SMOKERS
CEDAR CHESTS — RUGS

JOHN T. HERSHEY FURNITURE and
Funeral Service