GIFT SHOP WAS THE USUAL SUCCESS

The annual Gift Shop, sponsored by the women of St. John's Lutheran church, was held in the church basement Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 9 and 10, and was attended by many people on both days, a number being present from other places. The supper and dinner served were of the usual excellent quality, and greatly enjoyed by everyone. The women are very grateful to everybody for their patronage, donations and assistance in making the event a success.

Walter Benzinger, employed by the Illinois Central in Chicago, arrived Monday to visit his sisters, Mrs. Wm. F. Binder and Mrs. Roy Aylesworth.
