TURN IN YOUR

KEROSENE COUPONS

Purchasers of kerosene and fuel oil must turn in their stamps to their dealer, where they have signed promises. This is the only way your dealer can get more fuel for you, so turn them in at once.

CLUB NOTES

At a recent meeting of the D. W. club the members were entertained by Mrs. Oswald Brooker, at her home west of the city. It was the occasion of the annual Christmas party, and an exchange of gifts was featured. Several children of the members were present and they enjoyed having Santa Claus with them. The diversion was pinochle, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Wm. Voelker of Kenney, Mrs. Wendell Rothwell and Mrs. Theodore Aderman. The guest prize went to Miss Anna Hassebrook. Mrs. Neal Gulso and Mrs. Abner Jackson were also club guests. At the next meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 13 the club hostess will be Mrs. Henry Rohrer of Lincoln vicinity.

The Junior Woman's club met Thursday night, Dec. 10, with Miss Shirley Carter in the Bertoni apartments, with 20 present, including the advisers. At the business meeting it was decided to hold the annual dance, to be given in Odd Fellows hall at a date to be announced later. The public will be invited.

The girls played bunco, and the prize went to Joan Romer. Ice cream and cake was served, after which a gift exchange was held. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Jan. 6, at the home of Marilyn Schmidt.

The Sugar Grove Community club will meet Tuesday evening, Dec. 22, at the Sugar Grove school in Chester township, about five miles northwest of Mount Pulaski, and the children will present a Christmas program under the direction of Mrs. Cordella Armstrong, their teacher. An exchange of gifts will be featured. The lunch committee, composed of Mrs. Adolph Yagow, Mrs. J. W. Crosier and Mrs. John Mahler, will serve sandwiches, cookies and candy.

The Buckles Community club will meet at the Buckles school west of the city Friday evening, Dec. 18 for their regular meeting and Christmas party.

Members of the Pa-Ma club were entertained Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Wynd. Following the dinner at 6:30, the annual Christmas party was held.

Church Societies

The regular meeting of the Dorcas Guild of St. John's Lutheran church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Talmage. The annual Christmas party was featured, and an exchange of gifts was made from a decorated Christmas tree. Rook was played, and prizes went to Mrs. Charles E. Hildreth, and Mrs. Wm. F. Binder. Lunch was served.

At a recent regular meeting of the A. V. class of the Methodist church, held at the apartment of Mrs. Roy Carter, officers were elected for the year, as follows: Miss Nelle Vandevender, president; Mrs. Walter Bartels, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Weller, secretary; Mrs. Harry Lucas, treasurer; Mrs. Morrell Deibert, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter Bartels, teacher.

Mrs. Martin Voelker and baby daughter Carol Ann came home Thursday afternoon in the Schahl ambulance from the St. Clara's hospital, Lincoln.

Sgt. Reid L. Hoots, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hoots, who live about 8 miles southeast of Mount Pulaski, after a short visit at home has returned to Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz., where he is stationed as an administrative clerk.

Everett K. Brooker returned home from a three weeks' trip to California. He went to visit his nephew, Carleton Drake, in the Marine Corps, stationed at San Diego.

The Practice of the Presence of God

By BROTHER LAWRENCE

If we were well accustomed to the exercise of the Presence of God, all bodily diseases would be much alleviated thereby. God often permits that we would suffer a little to purify our souls. I cannot understand how a soul, which is with God and which desires him alone, can feel pain: I have had enough experience to banish all doubt that it can.
