

Feitshans Lose 38-28 Game

The Hilltoppers whipped a Feitshan outfit from Springfield here Saturday night despite the fact that they did a lot of wild heaving of the ball which kept the score from being a topheavy one.

Veech, with 13 and Buckles with 11 were the machine gunners for the locals, with Vogel-sang the threat of the visitors.

Johnny Martin was at center for the locals due to Ayer's having a bad finger. Martin, who hasn't been out long did a nice job and his work in coming games will be a big help.

Kruger scored from the side to open the warfare and Bertoni evened it with a pass from Buckles to go straight into the basket. Buckles grabbed a charity toss and so did Bertoni, while Veech, recovering his shot, sank a rebound. Barnosky took a long pass to slip in behind for a basket. Score 6-4, Pulaski.

Locals Step Out

The second period started out as though it would be all Feitshans with Barnosky sinking a basket and scoring a free toss with Kruger getting ahead of the "pack" to score an easy one. Pulaski started fighting back and controlled the rest of the period. Bertoni, Martin and West sank free tosses and Bertoni went under for a fast one. Buckles hurled one to Veech down the floor and it was another basket for the locals. Buckles then intercepted a throw-in and sank another two-pointer to end the half, 15-8, Pulaski.

Feitshans Get Close

Veech passed to Buckles who sank a basket to open the second half. Barnosky sank a free toss and Vogel-sang sank a clever shot from way out. Barnosky, big center, left the game on 4 personals. Smith got the range and dropped in a counter but Buckles came thru with a fast drive to score. Schultz got one for the visitors and Veech came back with a long one to make it read 22-18, Pulaski.

Fourth Period Fast One

Both teams were hitting the basket in the last period, with West, Veech and Bertoni scoring in rapid order to start proceedings, and the visitors calling for a breathing spell. It didn't help matters much for Veech again scored. Bertoni left via the foul route. Buckles and Veech scored in rapid fire order but Vogel-sang stole the ball and went down the make it 34-20. Veech picked up a free toss and Vogel-sang again dropped one in. The locals picked up two more points when Hatfield and Buckles were fouled.

Smith scored in close and Vogel-sang made his fourth basket and was given a foul but took the ball out of bounds, to no avail, the game ending 38-28, Pulaski.
