the best you could,

And have done much to erase the memory of the disgraceful farewell of your predecessor, 1941.

1943, our Best Wishes are yours with the humble prayer that you can and will bring VICTORY

To the free peoples of the world and that peace once more will reign throughout the land.

And to those who suffer the loss of loved ones in this momentous struggle,

We wish for them a courage and faith that will help them carry on even as did their hero—unfaltering and profoundly proud.

And we join with every true American in paying a silent tribute in our hearts to these magnificent sons of yours.

HILLTOPPERS WIN—

fouled Hilderbrand who made it. West scored a long one and Hilderbrand and Taylor got baskets to make it 36-20. Warren got a second basket and Ayers replaced Martin at center, and he made a shot on the first play. Hatfield Buckles scored again as 39-24 at the quarter.

A Torrid Final

and again started the with a basket but Hatfield thru to even it. Wattle and West missed two free tosses but Wattles sank his gratis toss. Duff again blasted one thru the hoop and Ayers hit his second basket, a long one. Bokenkamp scored short. Pulaski took a lease on life with Bertoni scoring and Ayers getting another lone one. Bertoni sank a free one. Pulaski missed a sleeper and Hilderbrand came thru with his 12th basket and made his 13th a few seconds later. Buckles dropped in a one-hander and Warren scored his third basket. Ayers came thru in fine shape with his fourth basket in a little over a quarter playing time. He was fouled on the shot but missed the free one. Hilderbrand scored his final basket and was fouled by Staley and made it good. Martin ended the scoring with a nice bucket. Final 59-39.

The Hilltoppers came thru in their second game with a one-sided win over Milford and then took the consolation championship by defeating Neoga 40-35.
