

"SADIE OF THE U. S. A." was the snappy play presented by the 1942 Juniors. The play cast, left to right is: Edwin Goodpaster, Helen Buckles, Julian Meister, Patricia Guffey, Marilyn Schmidt, Jane Schaffnacker, Mildred Van Hook, Bettie Keck, Dick Merriman. (Times-News Photo)

PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF ORDER OF THE E was held at the Masonic hall on Friday evening. The new officers and installing officers are pictured. Kretzinger of Chestnut, is the new Worthy Matron. Eugene Kretzinger is the Worthy Patron.

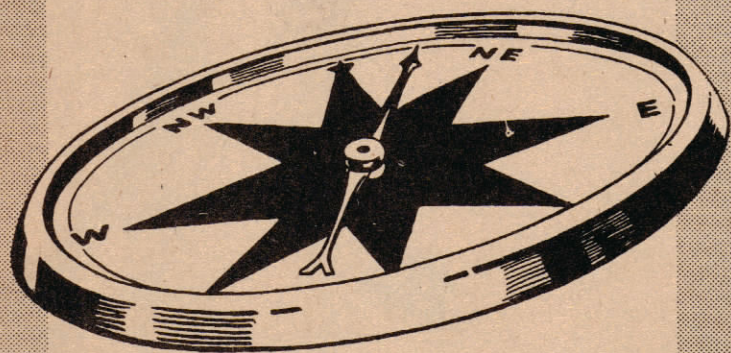

FIRE AT ROMER HOME—A heavy smokescreen at the Roman Romer fire on Sunday, November 22, enveloped the west and south side of the house as firemen tried to get to the flames which were confined to the attic and inside the walls. The home and contents were greatly damaged. (Times-News Photo)

MARRIED OCTOBER 10— Miss Gladys Stockton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stockton of Mount Pulaski, was married Oct. 10th, to Harvey Walter of Hagerstown, Ind., where they will reside.

NO MATTER WHERE YOU Travel

YOU CAN KEEP UP YOUR BANKING
CONTACTS BY Mail

It is simple and safe to make deposits through the mails (cash, however, should not be sent unless registered). Ask us about the simple procedure.

The First National Bank
Mount Pulaski, Illinois

KNOW THESE FOLKS? Well, you won't have any trouble picking out Rinaldo and Pauline Bertoni, but you may not recognize two former Mount Pulaskians, Art Woodrum and wife, who are located at Pasadena, Cal. The picture was taken on the Bertoni's trip to the coast some time ago.