M. EBERHARDT

and had resided there since that time. She was a member of the Zion Ev. Lutheran church, of Chestnut, Ladies' Aid society and Fellowship club of the church, and for several years served as a Sunday School teacher. Mrs. Eberhardt took great interest in all school and civic activities in Chestnut, doing her share at times when her health would hardly permit. Through her kindly disposition and beautiful character Mrs. Eberhardt made hosts of good friends who will greatly miss her as one of the esteemed residents of the community. Besides all other duties she devoted her time as a newspaper correspondent, writing for the Bloomington Pantagraph and the Lincoln Courier.

Surviving are her husband, and one son, Wallace Carl, of Chestnut; and one brother, Clark Norris of Sparks, Nevada.

The remains were removed to the Schahl funeral home in Mount Pulaski and returned to the residence at 7 p. m. Saturday.

Funeral services were held at 2:45 p. m. Monday, Nov. 9, in the Chestnut Zion Lutheran church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Hein. Members of the Ladies' Aid society sang two hymns, "Be Still, My Soul," and "Abide With Me," with Miss Ruth Hein as organ accompanist.

Burial was in Fairlawn cemetery, Decatur. The pallbearers were Samuel Hatchett, Raymond Lakin, Edwin Rentschler, Raymond Koenig, Henry W. Neuschaefer and Edward Buehler, all of Chestnut.

In charge of the flowers were Mesdames Harold Schaffnacker, Samuel Hatchett, Alta Abbott, Edward Von Thun, Alvin Rentschler, Clifford Leimbach, Raymond Lakin, Edwin Rentschler and Raymond Koenig.

CARD OF THANKS

It is with the deepest sense of gratitude that we express our appreciation for the many kindnesses and sincere expressions of sympathy extended us in the loss of our loved one, Maude Ellen Eberhardt.
