Sam Allen, 77; Elkhart, Dies

Samuel Allen, 77, of Elkhart, died at 2 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 5, 1942, in St. Clara's hospital, Lincoln, following an illness of three weeks. He was a hospital patient two days.

Mr. Allen was born Jan. 13, 1865, at Harrisburg, Ill., and came to Mount Pulaski with his folks in his young manhood days. His mother, Mrs. Mary Allen, was one of the city's well known and esteemed residents, and for a number of years the family lived in the old Beam residence on the north side of the square, where the Odd Fellows building now stands. Mr. Allen was employed in and near the city for many years, and located in Elkhart about 20 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, the former Lizzie Stellar of Elkhart; one son, Harvey; and a stepson, Frank Schultz of Elkhart; one step-daughter, Mrs. Morrie Sandridge, Knoblick, Ky., and a sister, Mrs. Maggie Klotz of Mount Pulaski. Three brothers and three sisters preceded him in death.

The body was removed to the Goff funeral home in Lincoln, remaining until the hour of the funeral.

Funeral services were held in the Elkhart Christian church at 2 p.m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. J. Wayne Staley, pastor of the Christian church, Mount Pulaski. Burial was in the Mount Pulaski cemetery.
