REFLECTIONS

All Things Work Out

Because it rains when we wish it wouldn't,
Because men do what they often shouldn't,
Because crops fail and plans go wrong,
Some of us grumble the whole day long;
But somehow in spite of care and doubt,
It seems at last that things work out.

Because we lose where we hope to gain,
Because we suffer a little pain,
Because we must work when we'd like to play,
Some of us whimper along life's way;
But somehow as day must follow the night,
Most of our troubles work out all right.

Because we cannot forever smile,
Because we must trudge in the dust a while,
Because we think that the way is long,
Some complain that life is all wrong;
But somehow we live and skies grow bright,
And most things seem to work out all right.

So we'll bend to our troubles and meet our care,
For the clouds must break, and the sky grow fair,
Let the rain come down as it must and will,
But we'll keep on working and hoping still;
For, in spite of grumblers who stand about,
Somehow it seems all things work out.

So it is with sugar rationing, tire rationing, etc.

But so far most folks have managed to get along in pretty good shape.

Priority ratings with the requirement of signing a certain ditty before you can get some needed merchandise,

And then oftentimes one forgets to add the magic letters OA, OP or BS.

Now comes the threatened gas rationing to worry about.

All of these and many other things are all quite aggravating at times,

But after reading the above poem one can't help but feel that

All things Will Work Out in spite of our goodnatured grumbling over this and that.

And the victories of our boys overseas who are making real sacrifices

Should cause one to feel that necessary inconveniences at home are privileges instead of privations.

Pulaski Wins Opening Cage Game, 41-24

Elkhart Was Opponent Here Saturday Night

The first chapter of Mount Pulaski's 1942-43 edition of high school basketball history was formerly recorded here Saturday night when the team defeated a scrappy Elkhart cage crew, who had defeated the Hartsburg Stags the night before, by a score of 41 to 24.

The game started out to be a one-sided affair with the Purple and Gold leading 13 to 2 at the end of the first quarter, but Elkhart had a different idea as to letting the locals make a runaway affair of it and came back so strong in the second quarter that they outscored Pulaski 10 to 8, trailing at the half 22 to 12.

The 3rd quarter was also a battle with the Hilltoppers scoring three more points than their opponents, while the last period was 8 to 4 in favor of the locals.

The reserves whipped the Juniors in a nip and tuck battle, as a preliminary, 29 to 24.

Preceding the main game an appropriate flag-raising ceremony was had with the band playing the Star Spangled Banner as the flag was raised slowly to the top of the gym and remained there during the game.

Band Score Again

The band, under the direction of Bandmaster Harned was again a very enjoyable part of the evening and the maneuvers of the band in their marching and letter formation was excellent and performed with out a hitch. Playing "Anchors Aweigh," the band went into an anchor formation, then played a snappy march as they maneuvered to face the Elkhart stand and formed a letter "E". Back again in regular formation they went into an "MP" formation facing the Pulaski section, and then played the new school song, "Fight On, Pulaski," while the students sang it with plenty of pep.

Fultz of Clinton, and one granddaughter, Miss Elsie Fultz, of Clinton.

Gas Rationing Registration Closes Here Friday Evening

Special Period For Those Who Fail to Register.

Car owners will do well to remember that they must register this week-end to get their gas ration books.

In fact, registration which was postponed from last week end, started this Thursday evening at the high school, when all those whose names begin with A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, and I, were supposed to register.

This Friday morning from 8:30 to 12:30 all persons from J to R are to register. In the afternoon from 1:00 to 5:00 the S and Z names will be registered.

A special registration period will be offered the public Friday evening from 6 to 10 for all those who were unable to register at the time their "letters" were scheduled.

Principal Lloyd L. Hargis, who is in charge of registration states that motorists must comply with the following rules before they can secure their ration book.

You must have your state motor vehicle registration card.

Bring the serial numbers of your five tires.

You cannot register if you have more than five tires. You must dispose of the extras.

The application for a ration book must be signed by the person in whose name the car is registered.

Mrs. Katie Fant Died Tuesday

Mrs. Katie Fant, well known resident of Mount Pulaski, died at 12:15 a. m. Tuesday, Nov. 17, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilson, 4535 South Parkway, Chicago.

Mrs. Fant had been in failing health almost two years, and on this account had spent most of that time in Chicago. During the summer she came home with her son Charles, and remained a number of weeks at the family home in the southeast part of the city. She was aged 82 years, 2 months and 2 days.

Katie Yokem was born Sept. 15, 1860, in Auxvasse, Missouri. In Jacksonville, Ill., in the year 1882 she married Henry Fant, and they located in nearby Orleans. They later moved to Buffalo, Buffalo Hart and then Elkhart, where Mr. Fant was employed at Ogelhurst by the late Governor Richard J. Oglesby, who was governor of the state of Illinois for three terms, the longest period any incumbent ever held that office.

When Governor Oglesby died about 45 years ago, Mr. Fant had the honor of being one of the pall bearers. From Elkhart the family moved to Mount Pulaski 37 years ago. Mr. Fant preceded his wife in death on March 10, 1935.

In is an interesting fact that Mrs. Fant's mother, Mrs. Frances McDaniel, lived with her here for

M. Lushbaugh Died Friday Unexpectedly

Heart Attack Fatal to Local Woman.

Dr. Margaret L. Lushbaugh, well-known and esteemed resident of Mount Pulaski, died in her home on North Lafayette street at 6:45 a.m. Friday, Nov. 13, 1942, aged 67 years, 7 months and three days. Dr. Lushbaugh suffered a heart attack Thursday morning, and her condition rapidly grew worse. She was conscious until the final summons 24 hours later. News of her death came as a shock to everyone, as many knew that she had returned home only two weeks before from a visit in Oregon, Illinois, with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Rush, and a few days stay in Chicago attending a convention.

Margaret I. Toomey, was born April 10, 1875, near Emden, Ill., the youngest of the eight children of Edward and Catherine Fitzgerald Toomey. While she was still quite young the family located in Lincoln, Ill., where she attended school, and graduated from the high school about 1894, after which she began teaching, serving in a rural school near Latham one year, a like period in the Cornland grade school, and two years in the Mount Pulaski grade school.

On June 25, 1898, she married Murray F. Lushbaugh, a member of one of Mount Pulaski's pioneer families. In 1900 they moved to Springfield, living in that city until 1923, when they went to Chicago to live, where her husband died July 13, 1925.

Marilyn Rau Weds W. Vieth

A single ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leamen O. Rau of Latham, united their only daughter, Marilyn Jeanne, in marriage with Wilbur Vieth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Vieth of Beason, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Curry of the Methodist church of Charleston, a friend of the family, who was pastor at Latham a number of years ago. The members of the immediate family and a few close friends were present.

The bride was attired in a street-length dress of gold wool with green accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias and yellow roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. Alfred Vieth of Springfield, a cousin of the bridegroom, and she wore black with a corsage of yellow roses. Robert Vieth of Beason acted as best man for his brother, and Marvin Rau, small brother of the bride, carried the ring in a calla lily. The bride's going away outfit was enhanced with a Gill mink fur coat, a gift of her parents.
