

FIRST BASKET OF THE SEASON was caged by "Cutter" Ayers in the Mount Pulaski-Elkhart game Saturday night on the local floor and won by the locals 41-24. West is underneath awaiting the ball with Veech, Bertoni and Greer and Anderson (32) watching the play. (Times-News Photo)

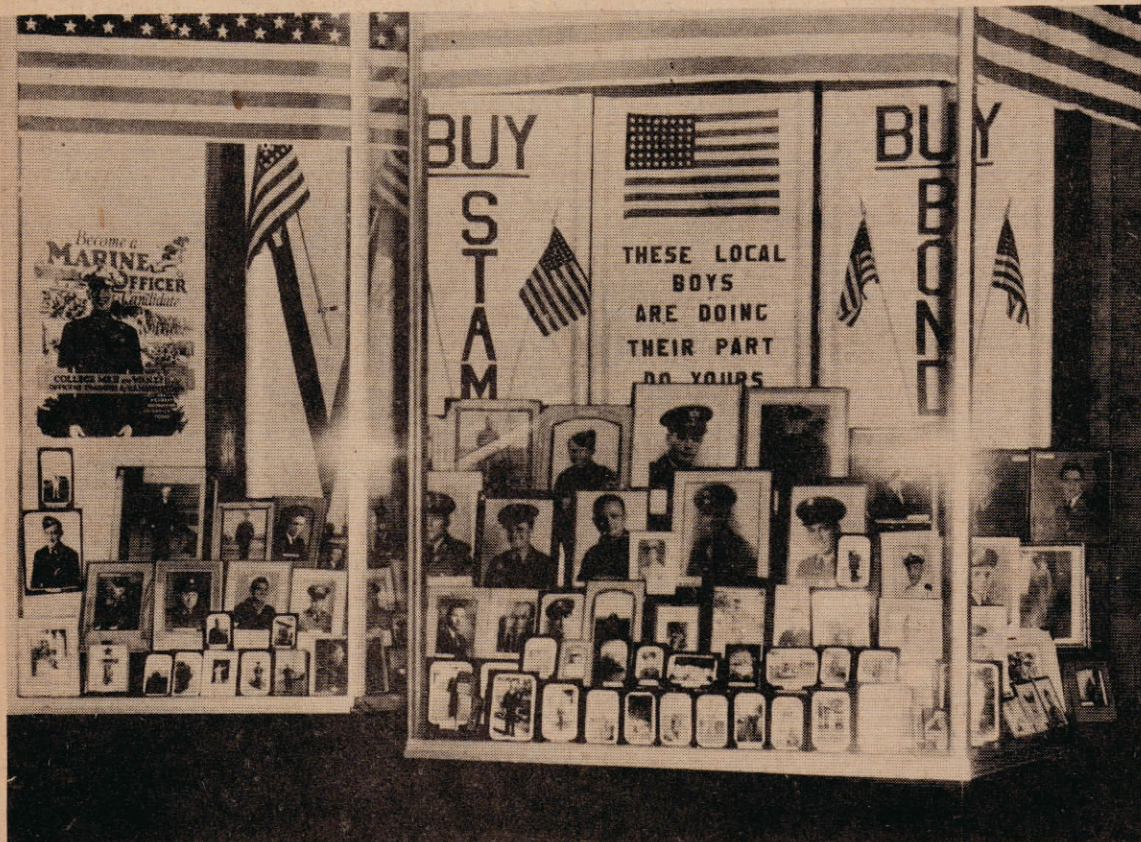

CELEBRATE 27th ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Allsopp, northeast of Mount Pulaski, celebrated 27 years of wedded life, at their home, Sunday.

AN ELKHART BASKET in the fourth quarter of the Mount Pulaski-Elkhart cage game here Saturday night with McCue (37), Anderson (32), M. Gleason (36), Greer (38) and Bertoni 18, waiting for the ball to drop thru the net. Veech (16) watches the proceedings from way out. (Times-News Photo)

IN CALIFORNIA—Mr. and Mrs. Rinaldo Bertoni (center) assisted Fred Bauman and wife water their lawn at Los Angeles, Cal., on their trip to the west coast to see their son, Junior Bertoni, engaged in defense work there.

SERVICE MEN'S PICTURE WINDOW at the Lyons 5c and 10c Store on the south side of the square was a high point of interest the past two or three weeks as the window filled up rapidly with pictures of the boys from the community brought in by relatives and friends. It was a good-will gesture of the Lyons store and very much appreciated by the public.

Professor Otto Ey and Private "Bill" Ey when they were kids. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ey of this city.

FLAG-RAISING CEREMONY at Mount Pulaski-Elkhart game Saturday night was quite impressive. Glenn Tutwiler, Mildred Rei and Esther Purget took part in the ceremony. (Times-News Photo)

