LUSHBAUGH

Chicago, Dr. Lushbaugh graduated in 1926, and followed her profession in that city until three years ago, when she came back to Mount Pulaski and purchased the W. E. Birks property, the present family home, and continued her practice at her residence.

In her second year as president of the Never-Grow-Old-Society, she presided at the meeting held Friday afternoon, Nov. 6th, at the home of Mrs. T. A. Scroggin. She was also a member of the Library Club, and a Royal Neighbors lodge, in Springfield.

Surviving are one son, Harmon E. Lushbaugh of Springfield; two daughters, Mary, wife of Irvin Mehrholz of Mount Pulaski; and Margaret, wife of L. L. Rush of Oregon, Ill., four grandsons, Harmon Lushbaugh III, John Mehrholz, James and Lewis Rush; and three sisters, Mrs. Katherine Fernandez of Springfield; and the Misses Mary E. and Nellie G. Toomey of Lincoln.

The remains were removed to the Hershey funeral home, and later returned to the family residence, where funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 15, conducted by Rev. J. Wayne Staley, pastor of the Christian church. Mrs. Fred Holmes sang two hymns, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "The Rosary," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Frank Turley.

The services were attended by many old friends, several being present from Lincoln and Springfield.

Burial was in the Mount Pulaski cemetery. Among the pallbearers were four of her grade school pupils of over 40 years ago, Ben W. Ely, who attended school in Cornland, Albert F. Dillsaver, H. V. Wynd and Guy Renner, pupils in Mount Pulaski. The other two pallbearers were Claude W. Upp and Dr. C. M. Merriman.

The flowers were in charge of Mrs. H. V. Wynd (Daisy Silkey), and Mrs. Robert D. Aitchison (Lulu Snyder), who were also her grade school pupils.
