RECEIVED PHONE CALL MONDAY NIGHT

John Scroggin, who has been living in Glendale, Calif., the past few years, is now in the army medical corps and stationed at Camp Bliss, Texas. He is the youngest son of Mrs. Ida Scroggin of Mount Pulaski, and not being able to be here for Thanksgiving, he called his mother up over the telephone at 9 o'clock on Monday evening and enjoyed a short talk with her.

ANNUAL GIFT SHOP DECEMBER 9 and 10

It don't seem long "for a year to roll around," and now it is time to again announce the annual Gift Shop to be held at St. John's Lutheran church on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 9 and 10th, sponsored by the women of the church. The women will, as usual, have for sale many suitable Christmas Gift articles, and will also have booths.

On Wednesday evening a baked chicken supper will be served, cafeteria style, beginning at 5 o'clock. The chicken will be 10c and all other articles 5c each.

At noon Thursday a cream chicken (on biscuits) dinner will be served, starting at 11 a.m.

Everybody is cordially invited to visit the Gift Shop, and also partake of the good things to eat.
