MOUNT PULASKI, ILLINOIS, LOGAN COUNTY, THURSDAY, NOV. 5, 1942

NUMBER 15

TIN CAN DRIVE staged by the youngsters of the Christian church Sunday School last Saturday brought in several hundred pounds of cans flattened out and ready for delivery to Uncle Sam. (Times-News Photo.)

GETS HIS WINGS—Hobart Rankin, son of Dr. H. H. Rankin, deceased, formerly of this city, and who attended Mount Pulaski high school, called at the Frank Rentschler home Monday, where he resided while attending school here, and told them he had completed his aviation course at Houston, Texas, and was a graduate flyer, having been awarded his Silver Wings.
