

MOUNT PULASKI TIMES-NEWS

Mount Pulaski, Illinois

Published and entered as second class matter in the postoffice at Mount Pulaski, Illinois, Nov. 17, 1930, under the Act of Congress of March 9, 1879.

HARRY J. WIBLE
Editor and Publisher

Terms of Subscription — Three months 50c; Six Months $1.00; One Year, $2.00.

Published Every Thursday

Postmaster Examination

(Continued from Page 1)

the post office in this city, or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. Applications must be on file in this Commission's office at Washington, D. C., not later than November 13, 1942.

LUTHERAN CONFERENCE HELD IN SPRINGFIELD

Pastors and lay delegates from Lutheran churches in central conference of the Illinois Synod of the United Lutheran church in America, convened at Grace Lutheran church in Springfield Wednesday and Thursday for their annual 2-day meet. Rev. Dwight P. Bair, D. D., Champaign, president of the central conference, presided.

Rev. Ray O. Zumstein, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church is secretary of the conference and was officiant when the conference observed the holy communion at 10:45 a.m. Wednesday. Rev. Zumstein was accompanied to Springfield by Paul R. Moore, as a delegate, and Mayor William Binder, as alternate.

At the business session Wednesday the following officers were elected:

President, Rev. Ray O. Zumstein, Mount Pulaski.
Vice president, Rev. A. B. Argenbright, Springfield.
Secy., Rev. Kenneth Knudson, Beardstown.
Treasurer, J. O. Collins, Springfield.

WORLD WAR II MOTHERS ORGANIZE

Mothers of World War II is a new organization in the city. A group of 32 women of Mount Pulaski township assembled in the township high school gym Monday afternoon, Nov. 2, and held their first business session, and made plans for further meetings.

The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. H. H. Maddox; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. Ellis C. Downing; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. Elsie Gerhardt; financial secy., Mrs. Eugene K. Connolly; recording secy., Mrs. Elizabeth Volle; treas., Mrs. Wilford Scroggin; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Walter G. Sams; parliamentarian, Mrs. Marie Van Hook; chaplain, Mrs. Albert F. Lipp; musician, Mrs. G. F. Wait; librarian, Mrs. J. Wayne Staley; 1st color guard, Mrs. John Hasselbrock; 2nd color guard, Mrs. Mike Schlachter; 1st color bearer, Mrs. Elizabeth Volle; 2nd color bearer, Mrs. Elva Scroggin.

The next meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, Nov. 9, and others will be present to become members. A state representative is expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Earles of Springfield, and daughter, Mrs. Ethel Maulding, of Long Beach, Calif., also Mrs. Earl Maulding and daughter Beverly of Springfield, were guests Tuesday of the formers parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Earles.

LOCALS

Miss Dorothy Wanda Glose and Miss Delores Fleagle, employed in Decatur visited Saturday night and Sunday with their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey E. Glose and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fleagle.

Don Goodpaster of Chicago spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Goodpaster.

Mr. and Emmitt Shellhammer, living four miles northeast of the city, had as dinner guests Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brown of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Pastel and two children, of Riverton; Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Sands, of East St. Louis.

Louis Danner and daughter Betty of Danville, visited in the city Sunday with his father, Christian Danner, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mann, who have been on their farm near Latham since last spring, returned to Mount Pulaski Saturday to again spend the winter months, and are occupying rooms in the home of Miss Della Washburn on West Jefferson street.

Ronald D. Oglesby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Oglesby, 1102 South Silas street, Decatur, enlisted in the U. S. navy last week and is stationed at Great Lakes. He is a grandson of Mrs. Emma Oglesby of Mount Pulaski. His parents formerly resided in this city.

Richard Talmage, U. of I. student, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Talmage.

Ennis A. Downing was in Chicago Wednesday and Thursday of last week and attended Grand Lodge of the Royal Arch Masons. His wife accompanied him on the trip.

"Love Was My Undoing," another dramatic and revealing chapter in the intimate memoirs of Pola Negri, famous film star, who was the fatal woman both in the lives of her lovers and in her own life. Read of her restless pursuit of happiness, from Warsaw to Hollywood, as she tells it in her own stirring words in the American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Sunday Chicago Herald-American.

Miss Lois Ross visited in Lincoln Saturday and Sunday at the homes of her brothers, Leslie and Paul Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Epping moved recently from Quincy to the latter's farm a mile west of Mount Pulaski. Mrs. Epping was formerly Mrs. Jennie Erlenbush Buckles, who located in Quincy 10 years ago.

Carl Tendick, of Rochester, Minn., is visiting west of the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Tendick.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Goetz, home economics instructor in the Township High school, was in Peoria Friday and Saturday and attended the annual convention of State Home Economics Association, held in the Pere Marquette hotel.

Donald Humble of Chicago has been visiting here for several days at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Rell C. Beidler.

Mrs. Tena Wood of Springfield was a guest Saturday and Sunday of her niece, Miss Katie Keil.

Robert S. Aitchison of Chicago, visited here from Friday to Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Aitchison. Although he was scheduled in the Logan county draft call for Monday, Nov. 2, he had already enlisted in the Navy and has returned to his position in Chicago to await the call for service.

Rev. Arthur Wittrock, pastor of the Lutheran church in Kensington, Kansas, arrived last Friday on a two-weeks' vacation visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. Wittrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Buckles visited in Chicago Saturday to Monday with her sister, Mrs. Alvin Moelhenry.

Mrs. Ida Scroggin has returned to her home from Dallas, Texas, where she visited for six weeks with her son, Guy Scroggin and family.

Mrs. Clyde Bowles and daughter Barbara Elizabeth of Madison, Wisconsin, arrived Friday to visit her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bowles and other relatives. Mr. Bowles will come Sunday to take them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Schafer, who live near New York City, departed on Sunday on the return trip home, after being called here because of the death of the latter's father, John Michael Kautz. While here they visited his father Fred A. Schafer.

Ben O'Dell, who was employed for a few months in plumbing work at the Oak Ordnance plant near Illiopolis, returned to his home in St. Louis, Mo., last week. Mr. O'Dell stayed in Mount Pulaski and made many friends.

Miss Esther Volle, teacher in the Atlanta school, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother Mrs. Elizabeth Volle.

Charles Holmes, Clarence Frazier, Jr., and Loren Anderson went to Chicago last Thursday in the hopes of enlisting in the navy air corps service, but all failed to pass the rigid examinations connected with this service.

Miss Marjorie McQuaid of this community has gone to Decatur, where she has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fleagle and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey E. Glose were in Decatur Tuesday evening and attended a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Finson. Others present were their daughters, Miss Delores Fleagle and Miss Dorothy Wanda Glose, who live at the Finson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dierker and family of Chestnut vicinity, and Herbert Enfield of Danvers, visited northwest of the city Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Forest Maske and family.

Harry Rule, Illinois Central signal maintainer here, was removed to the Deaconess hospital Sunday night for medical care, having suddenly suffered an attack of pneumonia.

Thomas Phillips, who had been employed for several months in the Mann tavern, began new duties Monday in Latham at the elevator of the Latham Grain Co. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will move their household goods there in a few days. They formerly lived in Latham.

The Logan County Council of American Legion Auxiliary will meet in Middletown at 2 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 12, and several members of the Mount Pulaski Auxiliary will attend.

Since Thursday of last week there were two rainy days, and added to this is the all-night rain beginning at 8 o'clock Wednesday, and was still going on Thursday noon, with a temperature of 45 degrees. On two mornings this week the thermometer registered 30 degrees.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert N. Hamm of Rockford, where he is stationed at Camp Grant, visited here Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rothwell.

Miss Florence Lachenmeyer and Ben W. Ely were in Niantic Sunday and attended a dinner party at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Pritchett, honoring the 17th birthday anniversary of her son, Charles Ely Pritchett. They also visited Mr. Ely's mother, Mrs. Harry Ely.

Dr. L. F. Whittaker of Huntington Beach, Calif., spent the week-end at the home of his brother-in-law, William Miller, and family, nine miles east of Mount Pulaski. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Miller, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williams of Latham, took Dr. Whittaker to Lawrenceville where he will visit with his father several days.

Hoarce Hanselman, who was inducted into the army Monday at Peoria, was sent to Scott Field. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hanselman, east of town.

Glenn B. Oglesby returned last Friday night from York, Nebr. where he had visited several days with his children.

Dr. Fred W. Reinders left on Wednesday for Marked Tree, Ark., on business.

Lon Davis has been working the past two months as an instructor at Chanute Field. His wife left here Wednesday for Champaign and they will live in an apartment there. The home two miles south of town is being occupied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis.

Lt. and Mrs. Harry Van Hook arrived Saturday from San Antonio, Tex., where he is stationed at the Normoyle Ordnance Motor Base, to visit for about a week with their mothers, Mrs. Marie Van Hook and Mrs. Grace Curtis.

They spent Tuesday night and Wednesday in Chicago with friends. He is being transferred to Camp Livingstone, La., and will depart for there Friday.

The women of St. John's Lutheran church announce the dates of their Annual Gift shop as Wed. and Thurs., Dec. 9-10.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kinert moved to Springfield this week, where he is employed at Pillsbury's.

Mrs. Paul W. Meyers was removed to St. Clara's hospital, in the Schahl ambulance Wednesday morning for medical care.

Myron Fenton of Santa Barbara, Calif., visited southeast of the city Friday with her cousin Mrs. Elmer Wachter and spent Friday night in French's Chapel vicinity with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Eggers. He was on his way to Washington, D. C. on business.

WE GUARANTEE "$1.00 to $3.00 PAID FOR DEAD HORSES & CATTLE"

(exact price depending on size and condition)

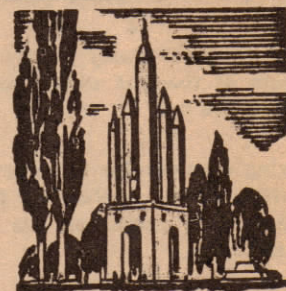

We Also Pay for Dead Hogs

Rendering & Fertilizer Co.

Lincoln, Ill.

J. H. Stuart

Phone: Mount Pulaski 237
Reverse Charges.

Distinctive FUNERAL SERVICE

AMBULANCE SERVICE

HERSHEY HOME

Phone 83 or 90

My Sincere Thanks . . .

To the Voters of Mount Pulaski and adjoining communities for their fine support of my candidacy Tuesday.

Homer B. Harris

State Representative.

WE STILL HAVE

Regular Size

INNER SPRING AND BOX SPRING MATTRESSES

We are fortunate to have a good supply in stock, these items will not be manufactured for the duration. When this stock is exhausted there will be no more.

A New Shipment of EASY CHAIRS

JOHN T. HERSHEY

Furniture and Funeral Service