

THREE THAT ARE HARD TO BEAT—Bobby Molloy, center, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Molloy of Lincoln, (the mother formerly Elsie Cook of this city), Dick and Carolyn Jean, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson of this city.

BABY PICTURE— Elizabeth Mayer, now wife of Herbert Holz of Rockford, daughter of Oscar W. Mayer.

BOYHOOD MAKE BELIEVE is now close to a reality. Dr. Robert N. Hamm, formerly of Mount Pulaski, as he played soldier in his boyhood days, is now in service in the dental corps at Rockford.

Dry Cleaning Is A War Weapon, Too

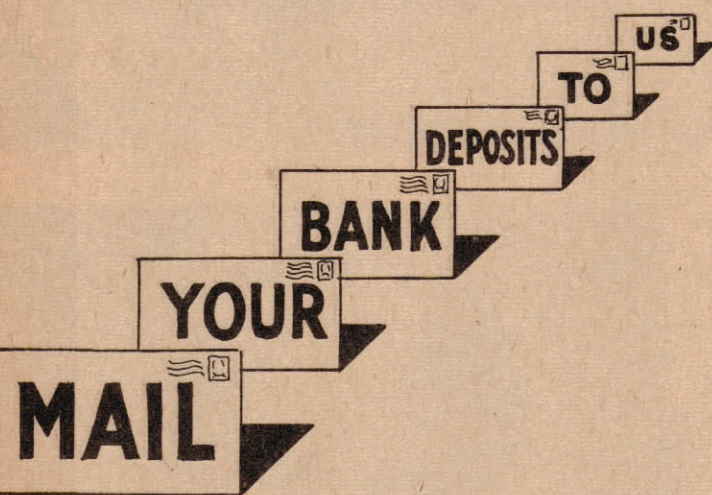

Most War Weapons are common evil or to afford protection why we call dry cleaning a war weapon. Clothes from needless wear is the common enemy of a soldier soon wears down the thread of the fabric. Do your part for war use. Make what you have clean often.

FOR THE DURATION

MOUNT PULASKI

"Your

Phone 227

Saves time all around.

Ask about the procedure.

The First National Bank
Mount Pulaski, Illinois