

ATTENDED FUNERAL IN WISCONSIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kemmer and Fred W. Kemmer, of this city, and Mrs. Katherine Schafnacker of Lincoln, were in Wausau, Wis., Wednesday and attended the funeral of John Ringle, Sr. Mr. Ringle, a frequent visitor in Mount Pulaski, and well known here, had gone to Glendale, Calif., on a business trip and to join his wife, who had been there a number of weeks on account of the sickness of their son John, who is attending an airplane school. Mr. Ringle died suddenly from a heart attack while getting into a bathtub on Tuesday, Oct. 6. When found one hand was on an electric heater.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Lucy Kemmer of Mount Pulaski, two sons, two daughters and a grand-daughter.

WILL HOLD FOOD SALE IN CITY OCT. 31

Persons interested in the Bowers-Templeman cemetery on Rt. 121, five miles north of here, are planning a Food Sale to be held Saturday, Oct. 31, in the north room of the Schafer hardware store. The proceeds are used for the upkeep of the cemetery, and anyone living in town or elsewhere who have members of the family buried there, are kindly asked to make donations of food for the sale.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE TO MEET FRIDAY

The next regular meeting of the Mount Pulaski Household Science club will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 16 at the home of Mrs. Orville E. Martin, instead of with Mrs. Carl Lipp, as was stated last week. Mrs. Ida Scroggin and Mrs. Lipp will be assisting hostesses.

Instead of having a masquerade party, Mrs. Anita Shamel, at the Household Science will be present for a talk. The program is:

Roll Call — Name a law and how it appeals to you.
Round Table—One dish meals.
Paper, "How to Best Prepare Plants for the House in Winter."
—Mrs. Jasper Veech.
