B. C.
MOORE

REPUBLICAN

FOR

County
Superintendent OF SCHOOLS

Mr. Moore was born in Pike county, Illinois, one of nine children.

He spent his boyhood and youth upon the farm and as a helper in his father's blacksmith shop.

He started to school at the age of nine, finished elementary and high school and began teaching at seventeen.

He liked the schoolroom and chose teaching as his life work.

He entered the Illinois State Normal University where he completed the diploma course and later in 1923 received the degree of Bachelor of Education.

In 1927 he was granted the Master's degree in Education by the University of Illinois. He also did post graduate work at Harvard University.

Mr. Moore has taught in rural schools, the grades, the high schools and college.

He was superintendent of schools at LeRoy, Lewistown and Lexington from which latter place he was elected County Superintendent of Schools of McLean county.

From the County Superintendency he was called to Eureka where he was superintendent of the grades and high school and instructor in Eureka College.

From Eureka he came to Lincoln College where for ten years he has been head of the department of Psychology and Teacher Training.

He has prepared many teachers who have taught or are now teaching successfully in Logan and other central Illinois counties.

His friends say that he is capable, careful, courteous, and conscientious. He is honest, human, helpful and healthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore are the parents of three sons, two are engineers, one of these now a Colonel and the other a First Lieutenant. The other is a high school principal.

Mr. Moore understands farm people and encourages all educational phases of rural life.

He will appreciate your vote on November 3.

Your vote and friendly support will be appreciated

TAKE A CUE FROM A FASHION ALERT LADY

Wearing the very latest, up-to-the-minute Fall apparel is very important, but don't forget that with the current Fall ensemble must go the very latest Autumn coiffure.

No matter what the fashion trend, the correct foundation for a smartly styled coiffure is an INDIVIDUALIZED PERMANENT WAVE.
