Hey, Kids!

If you will accept a bit of friendly advice you'll slow up on some of the things that have been done this Hallowe'en season that have been destructive. You are not playing fair.

And you older kids and young folks who would like to see some definite form of recreation worked out for you in the community are going to suffer if these destructive pranks keep up. You can help your cause considerable if you will try to keep these other kids and young folks from doing harmful pranks the next few days.

Parents would do well to keep a little closer "tab" on their youngsters these nights tham were on the Chicago market with three large truckloads of extra good cattle. They returned home by train, being met here by Edward Culp and daughter and taken to Latham.

The next regular meeting of the Mount Pulaski Library club will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 3, in the library rooms, the hostesses to be Miss Della Washburn, Mrs. George Underhill, Mrs. Frank Talmage and Mrs. Wilford Scroggin. One of the features of the program will be a book review by Mrs. Otto Ey, the book being entitled, "The Robe," by Lloyd Douglas.

TO ORGANIZE WAR MOTHERS HERE

A meeting was held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in the local high school gym by mothers who have sons serving in the army, navy, and marines in the present war, for the purpose of forming an organization, 23 women being present. Others were unable to attend and on this account the organization meeting will be held in the same place at 2 p.m. Monday, Nov. 2, when details will be worked out and officers elected. All mothers eligible to become members are asked to be there.

PLANTING HARD MAPLE TREES IN COURT YARD

Along with many elm trees dying throughout the city, as well as over a wide area in the midwest, are some of the old and large trees in the court yard atop the hill, surrounding the old Logan County court house, now an Abraham Lincoln Memorial Shrine. The custodian, Lawrence Vandevender, removed two of the dead trees and others will be taken out later. They are busy this week transplanting several young and good sized hard maple trees in several parts of the grounds, and in due time they will add to the beauty of the park and furnish fine shade.
