ENJOYED WEEK'S VACATION
FROM BAKERY DUTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Ey and daughter Miss Louise returned Sunday from a week's vacation trip, visiting in Chicago with their son, Cpl. Carl Ey, stationed with the Quartermaster's corps, Field Bakery, and in Lake Geneva, Wis., with Mrs. Ey's sisters, Mrs. George Malsch and Mrs. William Schwandt.

On account of the sugar situation, Ey's bakery was closed for one week, and it was the first time Mr. and Mrs. Ey had been on a trip together for a stay of several days in many years. Because the bakery was closed, Vincent Ey took advantage of the time and did some interior decorating, especially in the baking department.
