

CAR—This is the wreckage of the Oldsmobile driven by Louis Schwoerer ding with a huge transport truck northeast of Mount Pulaski about two route 54, about 3 o'clock Saturday morning. (Times-News Photo.)

WRECKED TRANSPORT which figured in the fatal crash which killed Louis Schwoerer of Mount Pulaski. The huge truck loaded with hides was badly damaged and was not moved until late Sunday afternoon. (Times-News Photo.)

WILLIAM J. "BUCK" ARNOLD died at St. Clara's hospital in Lincoln early Tuesday morning. He had been in failing health for some months.

LOUIS SCHWOERER, graduate of the Mount Pulaski Township High school last June, and a member of the basketball squad, who was instantly killed in a car accident early Saturday morning.

In Keeping With the Program of RUBBER CONSERVATION

I regret that I will not be able to call upon the voters of Logan county in the interest of my candidacy for

COUNTY CLERK

I want to assure you that a vote for my reelection will be a vote for a continuance of efficient service in one of the county's most important offices.

CLAUDE C. TULL
Republican Nominee

A BANK LOAN HELPED SINK THAT JAP SHIP

• In the long chain of steps from raw material to factory to fighting front, bank credit helped that torpedo along to its final rendezvous with the Rising Sun. Credit is a tool, a weapon, an ally. Use it wisely and often. We have the funds and will gladly welcome your loan application.

The First National Bank
Mount Pulaski, Illinois

ude of young up the washing ren of Mr. and (Times-News Ph.)