

MOUNT PULASKI TIMES-NEWS
Mount Pulaski, Illinois

Published and entered as second class matter in the postoffice at Mount Pulaski, Illinois, Nov. 17, 1930, under the Act of Congress of March 9, 1879.

HARRY J. WIBLE
Editor and Publisher

Terms of Subscription:
Three months 50c
Six months $1.00
One Year $2.00

Published Every Thursday

LOCALS

Mrs. Florence Pinney visited in Decatur Saturday and Sunday with her son, George, and family. Miss Dorthalene Lipp, Springfield, visited here Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lipp.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Larison and son Robert, of Wolf Lake, visited northwest of the city recently with his sister, Mrs. John Gulso, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Broerman, who have been living in Davenport, Iowa, visited here the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm G. Kautz. They have purchased property in Rock Island, and will move there.

Claude Litterly has purchased the registered Brown Swiss bull,

"Franky Lad No. 83124", from Lee Frank of New Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Gordon visited in Streator Saturday and Sunday with his father, Jas. W. Gordon, who is now 98 years old, and also with his brother James, and a sister, Mrs. Nellie Werrner.

Miss Alice Rowe of Kenney called on friends and former neighbors here Saturday.

Ambrose Witt left Saturday on a short business trip to Grandview, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dittus and daughter Phyllis, accompanied by Loren Dittus, left Saturday on an auto trip to the west, to be gone until the last of August. They will visit in Salt Lake City with Mrs. Dittus' sister, Mrs. Jessie Masterson, and in San Bernardino, Calif., with her brother, Dale Cullen, and wife.

Bill Obcamb of New Canton visited from Friday to Monday with his grandmother, Mrs. T. W. Moore.

While burning some trash recently at the home of his son Claude, in the west part of the city, Pete W. Buckles, 93, received a badly burned left hand when he put a little gasoline on the pile, thinking it was coal oil.

Mrs. Wilbur Hayes has sold her residence property on West Jefferson street, formerly the Ernest Goodpaster place, to John Croft of Chicago. Mr. Croft and family will move here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Shull and son Julian Ray returned home last Wednesday from Detroit, Mich., where they visited for one week with his uncle, Baxter Sheridan, and family.

Seventeen Girl Scouts, seniors and intermediates, were in Springfield on the evening of August 5, and took swimming lessons in the YWCA pool. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Kinert.

Miss Mary Ann Tenczar of Chicago was a guest part of last week of Miss Mildred VanHook.

Mrs. Pauline Moser and daughter Miss Magdalene, of Plymouth Indiana, visited southeast of the city recently with her son, Herman Moser.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beers of Chicago arrived Friday for a week's vacation visit near the city with his brother, Frank Beers, and wife.

Mrs. Celia Zah left several days ago for Forest Park, Chicago suburb, to visit her niece, Mrs. Leslie Smith, and family.

Glenn Rogers, who has been living in Kinsley Park, near Chicago, recently purchased the Harold Hubbard property, North Scott street, formerly occupied by the Hubbard family. Mr. Rogers, wife, and two children arrived last week to locate. He is a traveling salesman, and Mount Pulaski is in the center of his territory.

Robert S. Keck of Hot Springs, Ark., arrived Wednesday of last week to visit about ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Keck, and also attend the Logan County Fair at Lincoln, and the State Fair at Springfield. He was accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor, who have been spending the summer there. Mr. Taylor was High school coach at Tower Hill the past year, but will attend Western Illinois Teachers' college at Macomb the coming term, studying for his master's degree.

Paul Buckles of Lincoln made an auto trip Wednesday of last week to Detroit, Mich., and visited overnight with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Buckles. Returning home Thursday, he was accompanied by his father, who is visiting in Lincoln, and also in Mount Pulaski with his sisters, Mrs. T. L. Rothwell and Mrs.

George Litterly, and brother, Frank Buckles.

Pete W. Buckles visited in Lake Fork Friday with his daughter, Mrs. Elmer Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Troll Turner moved their household goods last week to an apartment in the Times-News building. They had been living at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. G. Phinney.

SHEETS FUNERAL HOME

MARVIN C. HUTCHCRAFT, Prop.

IS A LAWSUIT AHEAD OF YOU?

SEE the READER'S DIGEST

JUNE ISSUE - PAGES 5-7

Then See Us about Damage Suit Insurance

$10.00 BUYS $10,000 OF PROTECTION!

$13.50 BUYS $50,000 OF PROTECTION!

(Rate to occupants of private residences and apartments)

E. A. DOWNING

MOUNT PULASKI, ILLINOIS — PHONE 13

We tell
YOU

Prefer
It

— O R —

Return
It

It's the new "NEWS" in Dry Cleaning. Send your "particular" garments to the Logan County Cleaners, Lincoln, or the Mount Pulaski Cleaners, Mount Pulaski, for their personalized Dry Cleaning.

Then YOU be the JUDGE. If, after a thorough inspection you don't "PREFER IT," then return the sales slip to our office for a full refund. You can't lose - - - you're sure to win with our cleaning.

Logan County Cleaners

MILLER BLDG.

LINCOLN, ILLINOIS

Mount Pulaski Cleaners

PHONE 227

MOUNT PULASKI

To You,
Mr. Farmer
OF
Logan County

Your shoulder is to the wheel, and from your hands there flows that production of quality grains, fruits, meats and so many other things which make it possible for so many Americans to enjoy the better things of life.

And it is because of your prosperity . . . your progress . . . your careful planning . . . your diligent working, that this institution has grown so rapidly - that its resources have climbed so high the past few years. And now, again, let us congratulate you upon producing one of the best county fairs in the United States.

The First National Bank

MOUNT PULASKI, ILLINOIS