with chantilly lace; the full hoop skirt was draped in front with a chantilly lace ruffle, and ended in a wide circular train; several rows of seed pearls trimmed the halo which held in place her fingertip length veil of illusion, and she carried a colonial bouquet of bride's roses and stephanotis.

Following the reception in the church parlors, the newlyweds left on a trip to Canada. After Sept. 21, they will be at home in Mount Pulaski.

The bride, who for the past year, has been head nurse of the pediatric department in the St. John's hospital, Springfield, was graduated from the West Frankfort community high school and St. John's hospital school of nursing. Mr. McGee, a graduate of the Mount Pulaski township high school, attended Bradley University in Peoria. A veteran of World War II, he is now engaged in farming with his father.

FARMERS GIVE AID IN REMOVING BARN

When John Hieden lost his barn by fire recently, on his farm two miles west of Chestnut, he purchased a barn on the Alfred Loetterle place northeast of Mount Pulaski. On Thursday, Sept. 11, a group of neighbors and friends gathered, tore down the structure and took the lumber to the Hieden farm to be rebuilt.

Following is the list of men who helped on the project: Carl Shull, Clifford Aughenbaugh, Robert Aughenbaugh, Max Hollerback, Todd Buehler, Floyd Schaffacker, Avoldt Ulrich, G. E. Baldrige, John Hieden, Emil Kilman, Raymond Lakin, Richard Stoll, Victor Stoll, Ray Simcoe, Bud Schilling, Henry Hamilton, Harold Mayfield, Noah Stauff, William Pedigo, "Big Boy" Anderson, Virgil Lowery, Luke Bateman, Hubert Meacham, Allen Bell, Ernest Donnan, Ralph Aughenbaugh, Jake Zahrzewski, Curran Halsey, Arthur Marten, Harold Richert, Martin Richert, C. CLUB NOTES

Mrs. Norman Schahl entertained the members of the D. W. club on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 10, at her home west of the city. Pinochle was played. Prizes went Mrs. Fred Hild of Lincoln; Mrs. Otto Roos of Beason, Mrs. Edward Ruwe of Mount Pulaski. Mrs. Nelva Schroth received the guest prize and Mrs. William Voelker of Kenney the traveler's prize. Mrs. Julia Schahl was also a guest. Mrs. Wm. Voelker will be the October hostess.

The Services Mothers of World War II, will hold a potluck dinner at noon on Friday, Sept. 26, in the home of Mrs. Earl Holmes in Beason, and the War Mothers of World War I are invited to be present. You are requested to meet at the Tomlinson Recreation Center by 10:30 a.m. If you need transportation contact Mrs. Frank Rentshler or Mrs. Uriah Tendick.

The Household Science club will meet at 2:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 19, at the home of Mrs. Della Kinert, the assisting hostesses being Mrs. T. W. Moore and Mrs. George Snyder. A program will be given.

The Loyal Bible class of the Methodist church will meet at 2 p.m., Friday, Sept. 26, at the parsonage with Mrs. F. E. Neumeyer. Assisting hostess will be Mrs. George Kilick.

The Dorcas Guild of St. John's Lutheran church met Tuesday night with Mrs. Frederick Zimmann. After the business meeting Rook was played with the prizes being awarded Mrs. Edward Froschau and Mrs. Ray O. Zumstein.

The American Legion home was the scene of the Woman's club picnic Thursday evening, Sept. 11. The event had been scheduled to take place in the gardens of club president, Mrs. George Connelly. The dampness of the weather did not dampen the spirits of members and their families as seventy attended. Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock, the participants bringing their picnic baskets of food with them. All enjoyed the occasion.
