TOURING VARIOUS STATE HOSPITALS

The problem of adequate care for the mentally ill is one which clubwomen are beginning to explore as a field for service, and this week two Chicago women, Mrs. Warren H. Lutton, state public health chairman of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Walter M. Rennie, executive secretary of the Illinois Public Welfare department, who is a past president of the Federation, have arranged to take groups on tour of state hospitals.

This tour in Logan county was made Wednesday, the women going to the hospitals at the State School and Colony. The vastness of the equipment and work done there was a surprise to some of the visitors. Programs were given at the gymnasium in town and at the colony farm, including band numbers, folk dances, etc.

The Logan county club women making the tour were: Mrs. W. G. Matthews, Miss Veal, Mrs. Ellis C. Downing, Mrs. Harold Hubbard, Mount Pulaski; Mrs. Eugene Kretzinger, Mrs. Henry Neuschaefer, Chestnut; Mrs. Wilbur Colburn, Beason; Mrs. Geo. Parson, Mrs. W. O. Baker, Mrs. Elmer Brown, Lincoln.

ASHEN DEATH —

coln. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Monday in the French's Chapel church, six miles northeast of Mount Pulaski, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Fletcher, of Elkhart. Two hymns, "City Four Square" and "When They Ring Those Golden Bells," were sung by Mrs. Harry J. Wible, with accompaniment by Mrs. G. F. Wait.

Burial was in the Bowers-Templeman cemetery on State Route 121, five miles north of Mount Pulaski, in the community where Mrs. Ashen spent so many years of her life. The pallbearers were John Allsopp, Arthur M. Park, Charles Cole, Harry Larson, Edgar French and J. A. Hendrickson.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. JERRY W. HAHN

A miscellaneous shower was given above the Coffee shop at 8 p. m. Tuesday, October 21, honoring a recent bride, Mrs. Jerry W. Hahn, the former Miss Ella Doss of Peoria. The sponsors were Miss Lola Hahn of this city and sister, Mrs. Marie Hodson, of Springfield. There were more than thirty guests present, and the bride was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

The gift table was decorated with pink and green umbrella, and the color scheme was carried out on the other tables. In the contest held the prize was awarded to Mrs. Leroy K. Buckles, Sr., who in turn presented it to the bride. Charles Aylesworth sang two solos, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Rolla Shively. Refreshments were served.

CARD OF THANKS

For the words of sympathy and the many other kindnesses extended to us from our many friends and neighbors during our recent sadness, the death of our loved one, Lillie Boggs, we are sincerely appreciative. All of these deeds do so much to lighten the burden of sorrow.

The Family.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LILLIE BOGGS

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillie Jane Boggs, 77, widow of Milton Boggs, formerly of Mount Pulaski vicinity, who died at her home three miles east of Pleasant Plains on Wednesday, October 15, were held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, October 18, in the Schahl funeral home in Mount Pulaski, conducted by Rev. Frank Hunter pastor of the Pleasant Plains Christian church. Two hymns, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Beyond the Sunset," were sung by Paul R. Moore, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Frank E. Turley. Many relatives and friends from a distance attended the services. There were a large number of floral tributes and they were in charge of grandchildren. Burial was in Steenbergen cemetery, four miles southeast of Mount Pulaski. The

LETTER RECEIVED FROM MIAMI, FLORIDA

Mrs. Ernest Goodpaster and daughter, Carol, now living in Miami, Florida, with her son, Don, wrote the Times-News to change address of paper. Mrs. Goodpaster had the following to say:

"We sure like Florida, and of course, witnessed the tropical hurricane. There has been a lot of rain and disturbance since the big storm. We still have the nice sunshine and warm days, the weather being lovely. We are enjoying Miami very much. All of us anxiously await each copy of the Times-News."

MOUNT PULASKIAN AT PORT IN TURKEY

Lawrence D. Scott, fireman second class, U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. Matt Scott, rural route two, Mount Pulaski, is serving aboard the destroyer tender U. S. S. Yellowstone, which has visited Izmir, Turkey, while serving as a unit of the Mediterranean fleet. During their visit to the city of Izmir, the Yellowstone's crew members saw the International Fair of Turkey. The visit marked the first time in ten months that American naval vessels had stopped at a Turkish port.

Since arriving in the Mediterranean in early August, the Yellowstone has visited Naples, Italy; Suda Bay, Crete; and Izmir.
