Latham Man In Navy 25 Years

Chief Bandmaster F. L. Liming, U. S. Navy, and Mrs. Liming, have returned to their home in Seattle, Wash., following a visit in Decatur with his mother, Mrs. George W. Stoddard, 704 West Eldorado street, and with relatives and friends in his old home town of Latham. Mr. Liming attended school in Latham until he enlisted in the Navy 25 years ago at the recruiting station in Decatur. He is now serving as chief bandmaster in the Naval Reserve.

PICTURE IDENTIFICATION

The Times-News Pictorial 'boy' last week who was so charming and sweet, was not Ora Lee, Roy Carter or the publisher, as some thought, but none other than the wellknown George Underhill. Irwin Roland was the first to call in the right name.
