SON OF MOUNT PULASKI COUPLE WRITES POEM

Cpl. Erwin H. Knauer, stationed at Jackson Air Base, Jackson Miss., recently wrote a poem and sent it to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Knauer, who live on East McDonald street. The poem follows:

THE FUTURE

There is a nation fair and wide,
Where men of peace and hope confide;

Where pastures green, and rivers flow,

Where people freely live and thrive,

And shores are safe on every side.

Although the days are long and dreary,

Until our land at peace may be;

We'll fight and pray, from day to day,

And from our course will never stray,

So all at home at peace may be,
In this, our Land of Liberty.

Then when the lights go on again
And our boys come home again,

To live at home with those they love;

This blessing we ask from heaven above,

So may our hopes e're long come true,

And perilous days be very few.
