LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Curtis Risk, who spent boyhood days in Mount Pulaski, and attended the local schools, and now lives in Oakland, California, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Peoria just before Thanksgiving to visit their son, Norman Risk, and family. They also expect to visit in Clinton with Mrs. Risk's brother, Frank Nash, who is a Master mechanic employed by the Illinois Central railroad. They want to spend a day in Mount Pulaski before returning to California the first week in January.

At their home on South Washington street Sunday, Dec. 7, Mrs. Hattie Laymon and son Calvin entertained a group of relatives and friends at a turkey dinner. Those present were Mrs. Gertrude McFarland, Miss Ida Hick, Russell Laymon, John McFarland of Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Britton, of Terre Haute, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKinley, of Chestnut; Miss Dorothy Shawgo, of Lincoln; and Melvin Moore, of Beason.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

While I was a patient in the Deaconess hospital, many good friends remembered me with cards and gifts, and I want to thank them. I am now able to resume my studies in school.

SKILL PATIENCE TRAINING EQUALS A GOOD PERMANENT WAVE

It's something you can't buy at a counter . . . the skill and thoroughness and knowledge that your cosmetologist has. Nor can it be developed overnight; it takes a lot of time and practice. But it is this skill that enables your cosmetologist to give you a "custom" wave . . . one that's becoming to you . . . right for your hair texture. So why not be SURE? Phone 871 or just drop in and make your appointment.
